

Newfoundland & Labrador Federation of Co-operatives
Co-operative Membership Form

Who can become a co-operative member of the NLFC? A Co-operative Member of the NLFC can be any incorporated co-operative or credit union in Newfoundland & Labrador. As a non-governmental support agency, membership with the NLFC is completely voluntary.

What does it mean to be a co-operative member of the NLFC? Membership can mean many things to you. Whether you feel it's important to participate in the NLFC as a collective and united voice for the co-operative and credit union sector of the province, to have another avenue for promotion of your co-operative or credit union's activities, services, or campaigns, or to avail of the NLFC's members benefits (such as developing learning sessions for you) or perks (such as competitive rates through our partnerships with Genrus United and Co-operators). When you are a member of ours, we are always here to listen to how we can best support your work for you to thrive.

Membership Fee Information
Membership with the NLFC helps support the provincial organization in achieving its mandate, which is to represent the interests of the co-operative and credit union sector of Newfoundland & Labrador. Your membership fee is based on the number of members you have (with a base fee of $100). If this fee is a barrier to you, but you would like to become a member of the NLFC, please write in the box below a description of your need for financial aid. Each year, you can indicate whether this fee has continued to be a financial barrier for your co-operative. After your Membership Form is submitted to us, it will be presented at the NLFC's next Board Meeting to be accepted and you will then receive a notice of approval and an invoice if you are paying your fee that year.
